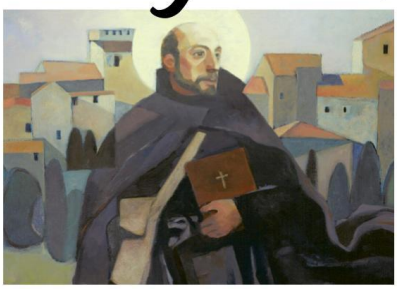
St. Ignatius Award



St. Ignatius of Loyola believed one's life purpose should be of love and service to others. It is not always easy to make the right choice. As we work though our daily lives and the decisions that brings, we call upon St. Ignatius to help us to make the right choices, to bring hope to those who are sad, and share the light of God with others.

If you know someone who has shared this Ignatius spirit with you, please nominate them for the St. Ignatius Award. Nomination forms can be found in your homeroom. The award will be reviewed monthly by the Faith Committee.

"Love is shown more in deeds than in words."

News

Fifteen students received nominations from students and faculty over the past few weeks. These students shared the spirit of St. Ignatius by lending a helping hand, including others and being leaders in the school.

St. Ignatius Award (continued)

After careful consideration, the Faith Formation Committee decided the winner of the first St. Ignatius Award would go to William Brasser for showing kindness. Congratulations William!
